EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS ATTRACT QUALITY ATTENDEES

Running concurrently with the show will be a free comprehensive educational conference program. Educational sessions, conducted by well respected industry professionals, will feature the latest applications and innovations today's facility maintenance professionals need to keep buildings and facilities running smoothly and efficiently.

Educational sessions are a proven method to draw the highest quality attendees and provide a great opportunity to have the experts on your staff gain visibility with this audience (speaking opportunities are limited).

MARKETING INITIATIVES THAT PRODUCE RESULTS

Maintenance Shows of America's marketing professionals will implement a comprehensive DIRECT MARKETING CAMPAIGN utilizing Direct Mail, Faxing & E-Mail.

In addition, we'll complement this direct marketing campaign with BILLBOARDS on busy highways and high traffic areas and/or RADIO SPOTS run during the morning and afternoon drive time hours.

What's more, we'll provide show promotional materials free to exhibitors. You can request an unlimited number of VIP Tickets and Show Flyers to send out to enhance your results at the show.

Don't forget to ask about speaking opportunities and sponsorship.
